

Farmspread Vendor Definitions - ACCEPTED VENDOR TYPES:

Farmer

A vendor that grows 100% of his/her own products, AND who owns, leases or operates a farm, dairy, orchard, greenhouse, nursery, poultry farm or raises livestock. This includes those who produce products made completely or predominantly of ingredients and materials grown on or gathered from their farm, dairy, orchard, garden, greenhouse, nursery, apiary or forest.

Farmer Dealer

A vendor that grows less than 100% but more than 50% of his/her own products, AND who owns, leases or operates a farm, dairy, orchard, greenhouse, nursery, poultry farm or raises livestock. This includes those who produce products made completely or predominantly of ingredients and materials grown on or gathered from their farm, dairy, orchard, garden, greenhouse, nursery, apiary or forest.

Specialty Food Artisan

A vendor that processes specialty food items for resale. Generally the items must be manufactured or finished with locally grown ingredients. The specialty category includes items like: Processed Produce, Baked Goods, Dairy, Eggs, Jams, Jellies, Honey, Syrup, Sauces, Coffee, Meat, Seafood or Poultry.

Food Truck

Any vendor that sells items prepared for immediate consumption on or off the premises via a food truck licensed by the appropriate authority. This can include Ready to Eat Meals, Hot Foods, Sandwiches, Salads, Cut Fruit, Ice Cream, Coffee, Smoothies.

Food Cart

Any vendor that sells items prepared for immediate consumption on or off the premises via a food cart licensed by the appropriate authority. This can include Ready to Eat Meals, Hot Foods, Sandwiches, Salads, Cut Fruit, Ice Cream, Coffee, Smoothies.

Served/To Go Foods

Those who sell food that is freshly made and available for immediate consumption on-site. This does not include Food Trucks.

Material Goods/Craft/Flea

Products that are not plant, flower or food. Including, but not limited to handmade/produced goods, antiques, collectibles, clothing, jewelry, accessories, art/decorations, hobbies and tools or other items made, enhanced/augmented or offered for resale.

Organization

An organization represents a group or cause. For example this could be boy/girl scouts, Red Cross, a local advocacy group or similar. An organization can be a non-profit but does not necessarily need to be.

Fisher/Seafood

A fisher represents someone who catches fish and other marine life to be sold and consumed.

Entertainment

Entertainment such as a music band.